Note 2 - Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of preparation

These annual accounts have been prepared in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements. Accounting principles and valuation rules are, besides the ones laid down by the Law, determined and applied by the managers (the "Board of Managers").

The preparation of annual accounts requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires the Board of Managers to exercise their judgement in the process of applying the accounting policies. Changes in assumptions may have a significant impact on the annual accounts in the period in which the assumptions changed. Management believes that the underlying assumptions are appropriate and that the annual accounts therefore present the financial position and results fairly.

Significant accounting policies

The main valuation rules applied by the Company are the following:

Financial assets

Shares in affiliated undertakings or participating interests, loans to these undertakings / securities held as fixed assets and other loans are valued respectively at purchase price and nominal value (loans and claims) including the expenses incidental thereto.

In case the Board of Managers deems that there is a durable depreciation in value of the financial assets, value adjustments are booked, so that they are valued at the lower figure to be attributed to them at the balance sheet date. These value adjustments are not continued if the reasons for which the value adjustments were made have ceased to apply.

Debtors

Debtors are valued at their nominal value. They are subject to value adjustments where their recovery is compromised. These value adjustments are not continued if the reasons for which they were made have ceased to apply.

Foreign currency translation

The Company maintains its accounting records in Euro (EUR) and the balance sheet and the profit and loss accounts are expressed in this currency.

Transactions expressed in currencies other than EUR are translated into EUR at the exchange rate effective at the time of the transaction.

Long term assets and liabilities expressed in currencies other than EUR are translated into EUR at the exchange rate effective at the time of the transaction. At the balance sheet date, these items remain translated at historical exchange rates.

Cash at bank is translated at the exchange rate effective at the balance sheet date. Exchange losses and gains are recorded in the profit and loss account of the year.

In accordance with prudence principles found within generally accepted accounting principles in Luxembourg ("LuxGaap"), other assets are translated separately, at the lower of the value converted using the historical exchange rate and the value converted using the exchange rate at the balance sheet date. Conversely, other liabilities are translated separately, at the higher of the value converted using the historical exchange rate and the exchange rate at the balance sheet date. Consequently, both realised and unrealised exchange losses are recorded in the profit and loss account while exchange gains are recorded in the profit and loss account at the moment of their realisation only.

Where there is an economic link between an asset and a liability, these are valued in total according to the method described above and the net unrealised loss is recorded in the profit and loss account while the net unrealised exchange gains are not recognised.

Creditors

Creditors are recorded at their reimbursement value. Where the amount repayable on account is greater than the amount received, the difference is shown in the profit and loss account when the debt is issued.

Current tax provision

Provisions for taxation corresponding to the tax liability estimated by the Company for the financial years for which the tax return has not yet been filed are recorded under the caption "Tax authorities". The advance payments are shown in the assets of the balance sheet under the "Other debtors" item.

Net turnover

The net turnover comprises the amounts derived from the sale of products and the provision of services falling within the Company's ordinary activities, after deductions of sales rebates and of value added tax and other taxes directly linked to the turnover.

Note 10 - Off balance sheet commitments and contingencies

As from 2005, the original shareholders of Alfatherm entered into a pledge agreement with multiple banks in order to obtain financing from them. As a result of additional required financing over the years, this agreement was amended several times to confirm and extend the pledge over the shares in relation to such new additional financing.

During 2016, Alfamito purchased from the original shareholders all (100%) of the shares in Alfatherm by way of a share purchase agreement, therefore becoming Alfatherm's sole shareholder, without prejudice to the pledge agreement. Further to a restructuring in the same year, the original banks were substituted by new banks, which reimbursed the original debt vis-à-vis the original banks, and provided additional financing to Alfatherm, without prejudice to the pledge agreement. The pledge agreement was further amended to confirm and extend the pledge over the shares of Alfatherm in relation to such new additional financing.

As per the agreement, the following, inter alia, has been pledged:

- all the shares of Alfatherm, representing its entire share capital;
- all future shares to be issued by Alfatherm;
- dividends; and
- all option, conversion and contractual rights in the shares of Alfatherm.
