

ACD : ZERO DATA MESSAGE REPORTING "FOREIGN ACCOUNT TAX COMPLIANCE ACT" OR "COMMON REPORTING STANDARD"

1. Disclaimer

 If a FATCA or CRS zero-reporting is filed in the name and on behalf of a declarant other than the holder of the certificate of this filing, the Tax Administration (ACD) presumes the existence of a valid mandate between the representative and the declarant.

The ACD advises that it is the responsibility of the mandatary to verify, within the limits of the obligations conventionally provided for by the mandate, the accuracy of the information contained in the reporting filed in the name of the financial institution.

2. Reporting

Your reporting concerns a zero data message	CRS
Fiscal year	2023

3. Legislation

 In accordance with the modified law of 18 December 2015 related to the CRS (Common Reporting Standard), a Luxembourg reporting financial institution must file a report with the ACD.

By this procedure, the Luxembourg reporting financial institution certifies that it does not have reportable financial accounts for the specified fiscal year.
